Attention:
Subject: Quotation for AP-3 Computer Programming Services

Gentlemen:

 is pleased to submit the following proposal for AP-3 Computer Programming Services, corresponding to Item 2 of our letter CA-19712, 17 June 1966. The proposed services cover the development of the new computer programs described in  Report 3786, "Report of Engineering Study, AP-3 Programming Services," which documents the investigation performed under Contract . In addition to basic programs for strip photography, the new programs would include: (1) a universal focal length capability which would eliminate the requirement for a variety of initial-conditions tapes; and (2) a whole-number, orientation pre-write routine for the rapid insertion of orientation parameters into the incremental section of the computer.

We offer to develop these programs for a firm fixed-price of . Delivery of the programs would be made ten (10) months after receipt and acceptance of your order. Program documentation would follow two (2) months later. The above price and delivery are based on the assumption that the AP-3 system would be made available at its present location in Washington, D. C., for use by [] personnel. The computer would be required for essentially one eight-hour shift per day during the last eight (8) months prior to delivery of the programs. It is assumed that this eight-hour shift would be between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 12:00 midnight.
